Integrity and Generative AI Use for Theses and Dissertations

(This declaration is one of the required attachments for thesis submission. Please submit it along with your graduation application.)

Approved at the first Academic Affairs Council on October 22, 2026

I hereby declare, with respect to the thesis that I have written, in accordance with academic ethics and relevant regulations, as follows:

1. My thesis/dissertation was completed under the supervision of my academic advisor, and was independently conceived, researched, and written by me. The research idea, research design, data collection, analysis, and discussion contained therein are all the results of my own work.
2. The main content of this thesis/dissertation was not written on my behalf by any other person, nor was any artificial intelligence (Generative AI) tool used to directly generate the core content of the thesis/dissertation, including the research questions, research methods, data, research results, and conclusions.
3. If any AI-related tools were used during the writing process of this thesis/dissertation, such use was limited to auxiliary purposes only, such as language revision, formatting, or assistance with other non-core research content. All related research content has been carefully reviewed by me, and I have confirmed its accuracy.
4. All literature, data, and research findings cited in this thesis/dissertation have been properly acknowledged and referenced in accordance with academic standards.
5. I understand that AI-related tools may produce incorrect information or fabricated references (hallucinations). Therefore, I have thoroughly verified all cited references in this thesis/dissertation to ensure that all cited sources actually exist and can be traced or verified.
6. I understand that if this thesis/dissertation is found, upon investigation, to involve fabrication, falsification, plagiarism, ghostwriting, citation of falsified references, or any other violation of academic ethics, the University may revoke the degree in accordance with relevant regulations and publicly announce the cancellation of the degree certificate already issued. Any related civil or criminal liability shall be borne solely by me.

I hereby make this declaration.
